The Mixed Exchange Commission is said to have reduced its personnel by 50%. It is said to have been decided that no successor will be appointed to Mr. Rivas Vicuna, the Chilean member who recently resigned to become Ambassador to Peru, but that, in case of necessity, use will be made of the services of one of the neutral members of one of the various mixed arbitral tribunals. Nevertheless, the suggestion is put forth that Greece.

Tewfik Rueştue Bey arrived at Piraeus on September 7 en route to Geneva via Venice. At Piraeus the Greek delegation to the League headed by Mr. Maximos embarked on the same vessel. The local press supplies no clues as to the subjects of conversation between the two foreign ministers while en route.

Mr. Tsaldaris, Greek Minister of Public Works, arrived at Istanbul on August 17. During his short stay he held numerous unreported conferences with various Turkish officials.

During the period under review the local press played up the fact that Mr. Maximos intends to support Turkey's bid for a permanent seat on the council.

REGARDING: Frontiers -- Turkey and Greece.
The New Greco-Turkish Treaty supplements the Greco-Turkish Treaty of Friendship, Neutrality, Conciliation and Arbitration of Oct. 30,1930 and the Pact of Cordial Understanding of Sept.14, 1933. It extends the mutual guarantee of inviolability of their common frontiers to the other frontiers of the two countries.
